On March 13, 2020, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit affirmed the decision originally issued by the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on June 8, 2018 requiring the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to grant Eagle Pharmaceuticals, Inc., or the Company, seven years of orphan drug exclusivity in the U.S. for BENDEKA (bendamustine hydrochloride injection, or bendamustine HCl), a liquid, low-volume (50 mL) and short-time 10-minute infusion formulation of bendamustine hydrochloride.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This report includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements other than statements of historical fact are “forward-looking statements” for purposes of this Current Report on Form 8-K, including implied or explicit statements concerning the outcome of any additional litigation involving BENDEKA, the performance of the Company’s marketed products, including BENDEKA, the Company’s collaboration with Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. with respect to BENDEKA, whether the Company and Teva will successfully perform their respective obligations under the licensing arrangements for BENDEKA, and any statements or assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of terminology such as “may,” “will,” “expects,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” or the negative thereof or other comparable terminology. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements contained herein are reasonable, such expectations or any of the forward-looking statements may prove to be incorrect and actual results could differ materially from those projected or assumed in the forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, the risks described in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements and reasons why results may differ included in this report are made as of the date hereof and the Company does not intend to update any forward-looking statements except as required by law or applicable regulations.
